UP-COMING Events

Shepherding a Child Heart Seminar A conference on child discipleship held at Christ the King in Cambridge, MA March 16th-17th - How do we cultivate a heart for God in our children in light of the grace of the gospel? What does that look like & why pursue this in our parenting? These questions & more will be addressed by the guest speaker Paul David Tripp If you or a group of couples are interested in attending, please place an “S” by your name in today’s register, or contact Tolivar at cpctolivar@snet.net. Childcare will be provided & deadline for childcare registration is March 11th.

Missions Banquet Sunday, March 18th CPC will be hosting its annual missions banquet, highlighting its role in the overall mission of the church. You will have the opportunity to hear our “missional pulse” for Greater New Haven, the US and beyond as well as the various ways you can join with us in carrying out our “missional” identity as the Church of God. There will be a presentation given during the Sunday school hour, followed by a fellowship meal after the worship service, where you will hear from some of CPC’s own share how the Lord is working in and through them throughout the area.

Hot of the Press – CPC Coffeehouse/Bookstore Grand Opening – Friday, March 30th – 8:00 pm.
